

Choosing New Books

Fill in the blanks on this side without looking at the story on the other side. Then, write the words you have chosen on the corresponding blanks in the story and enjoy!

adjective _____

number _____

name of person in room _____

adjective _____

plural noun _____

plural noun _____

plural noun _____

plural noun _____

plural noun _____

name _____

place _____

name _____

adjective _____

adverb _____

adjective _____

adjective _____

exclamation _____

number _____

Choosing New Books

One day, I went to Galion Public Library to find some _____
adjective

books. There were too many to choose from; there were at least _____ books on the shelves! _____ number name of person in room suggested that I ask one of the _____ librarians. We both

adjective

went to the desk and asked for help. "Hello," said the librarian. "Would you like books about _____, _____, or plural noun plural noun

_____?" "No," I said. "I do not like _____
plural noun plural noun

or _____." "Maybe you would like a book about a dog
plural noun

named _____, a family that goes to _____,
name place

or a book written by an author named _____?" the
name

librarian asked. "Those sound too _____," I said. "I
adjective

would prefer something that I can read _____."
adverb

"I have just the thing," the librarian responded. "Here is one of my favorite books. It is the most _____ book I have ever

adjective

read. Also the illustrations are _____."
adjective

"_____," I exclaimed. I will give it a try! May I please
exclamation

check it out for _____ weeks?"
number